

The White House Conference on Aging (WHCoA) recently published a listing of the broad resolutions that will be put before Delegates when the Conference convenes in Washington, DC next week.

To access the 73 resolutions that will be presented to the Delegates, click <http://www.whcoa.gov/about/resolutions/Resolutions.pdf> Delegates will select 50 from among these 73 resolutions and devote a significant part of the Conference to developing implementation strategies for the resolutions that go forward. These implementation strategies, which will be included in the report of the 2005 WHCoA, are key to the legacy and impact of the Conference.

We want to thank you again for your efforts back in July to help inform the policymaking of the 2005 White House Conference on Aging through your support of the Disability & Aging Mini-Conference.
